response.

After reviewing any amendment to your registration statement and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have additional comments.

Amendment No. 2 to Registration Statement on Form F-1

Cove Page

Please refer to the prospectus cover page. Please revise the fourth paragraph to explain whether the VIE structure is used to replicate foreign investment in Chinese-based companies where Chinese law prohibits direct foreign investment in the operating companies, and disclose that investors may never directly hold equity interests in the Chinese operating company. Your disclosure should acknowledge that Chinese regulatory authorities could disallow this structure, which would likely result in a material change in your operations and/or value of your Class A ordinary shares, including that it could cause the value of such securities to significantly decline or become worthless. Provide a crossreference to your detailed discussion of risks facing the company and the offering as a Xueyuan Weng FirstName Golden SunLastNameXueyuan result of this structure, and state that this structure involves unique risks to investors.

Please revise the prospectus cover page to provide prominent disclosure about the legal and operational risks associated with being based in or having the majority of the company s operations in China. Your disclosure should make clear whether these risks could result in a material change in your operations and/or the value of your Class  $\ensuremath{\mathtt{A}}$ ordinary shares or could significantly limit or completely hinder your ability to offer or $\bar{\phantom{a}}$  continue to offer securities to investors and cause the value of such securities to significantly decline or be worthless. Your disclosure should address how recent statements and regulatory actions by China  $\,$  s government, such as those related to the use of variable interest entities, data security, anti-monopoly concerns, and the regulation of tutoring institutions, has or may impact the company sability to conduct its business, accept foreign investments, or list on an U.S. or other foreign exchange. Your prospectus  $% \left( 1\right) =\left\{ 1\right\} =$ summary should address, but not necessarily be limited to, the risks highlighted on the  $\,$

Clearly disclose how you will refer to the holding company, subsidiaries, and VIEs when entity the disclosure is referencing and which subsidiaries or entities are conducting the  $\,$ business operations. Refrain from using terms such as we on when describing activities or functions of a VIE. Disclose clearly the entity (including the domicile) in which investors are purchasing their interest.

entity. Describe all contracts and arrangements through which you purport to obtain economic rights and exercise control that results in consolidation of the VIE s operations and financial results into your financial statements. Identify clearly the entity in which $\overline{\phantom{a}}$  operations are conducted. Describe the relevant contractual agreements between the entities and how this type of corporate structure may affect investors and the value of their investment, including how and why the contractual arrangements may be less effective than direct ownership and that the company may incur substantial costs to enforce the  $\ensuremath{\mathsf{c}}$

the Cayman Islands holding company with respect to its contractual arrangements with the  $\,$ $\,$  VIE, its founders and owners, and the challenges the company may face enforcing these contractual agreements due to uncertainties under Chinese law and jurisdictional limits.

5. In this section, disclose each permission that you, your subsidiaries or your VIEs are required to obtain from Chinese authorities to operate and issue these securities to foreign investors. State whether you, your subsidiaries, or VIEs are covered by permissions requirements from the CSRC, CAC, PRC Ministry of Education or any other entity that is  $\frac{1}{2}$ investors. Describe any restrictions and limitations on your ability to distribute earnings from your businesses, including subsidiaries and/or consolidated VIEs, to the parent company and U.S. investors as well as the ability to settle amounts owed under the  $\ensuremath{\text{VIE}}$ agreements.

7. We note that the consolidated VIEs constitute a material part of your consolidated $\hbox{financial statements. Please provide in tabular form condensed consolidating schedule} \ -$ depicting the financial position, cash flows and results of operations for the parent, the  $\,$ consolidated variable interest entities, and any eliminating adjustments separately – as of the same dates and for the same periods for which audited consolidated statements are required. Highlight the financial statement information related to the  $% \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1$

the cash held and transferred among entities.

8. Disclose that trading in your securities may be prohibited under the Holding Foreign

Companies Accountable Act if the PCAOB determines that it cannot inspect or fully investigate your auditor, and that as a result an exchange may determine to delist your  $% \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) +\left($ securities. If the PCAOB has been or is currently unable to inspect your auditor, revise  ${}^{\prime}$ your disclosure to so state.

9. In your summary of risk factors, disclose the risks that your corporate structure and being based in or having the majority of the company s operations in China poses to investors.

In particular, describe the significant regulatory, liquidity, and enforcement risks with example, specifically discuss risks arising from the legal system in China, including risks and uncertainties regarding the enforcement of laws and that rules and regulations in China can change quickly with little advance notice; and the risk that the Chinese government may intervene or influence your operations at any time, or may exert more control over offerings conducted overseas and/or foreign investment in  $\operatorname{China-based}$ issuers, which could result in a material change in your operations and/or the value of  $% \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) +\left($ hinder your ability to offer or continue to offer securities to investors and cause the value of such securities to significantly decline or be worthless. Risk Factors, page 10

Given the Chinese government s significant oversight and discretion over the conduct of your business, please revise to separately highlight the risk that the Chinese government may intervene or influence your operations at any time, which could result in a material change in your operations and/or the value of your Class A ordinary shares. Also, given recent statements by the Chinese government indicating an intent to exert more oversight and control over offerings that are conducted overseas and/or foreign investment in China-based issuers, acknowledge the risk that any such action could significantly limit or completely hinder your ability to offer or continue to offer securities to investors and cause the value of such securities to significantly decline or be

We note the recent issuance of the "Guideline to Significantly Reduce Burden of Homework and After-school Tutoring for Students in Primary and Middle Schools." The guidelines appears to contain various requirements and restrictions related to after school tutoring services, including registration as non-profit, prohibition on foreign ownership, prohibition for listed companies on raising capital to invest in businesses that teach academic subjects in compulsory education, limitations as to when tutoring services on academic subjects may be provided and new fee standards. Disclose the applicability of these guidelines to you and your business and how and when you expect to comply. Please also address if these guidelines may be expanded in the future to cover any of your other business or operations.

In light of recent events indicating greater oversight by the Cyberspace Administration of China over data security, particularly for companies seeking to list on a foreign exchange, please revise your disclosure to explain whether and how this oversight impacts your business and your offering and to what extent you believe that you are compliant with the regulations or policies that have been issued by the CAC to date if applicable.
